Forwards the statement of Michael Dillay explaining that the date of birth given in his baptismal certificate is correct and that accepted for his life insurance is wrong & that the discrepancy is purely due to a mistake.

13 The facts of the case may be briefly summarised as follows:—

14 The Official gave '9th may 1875' as his date of birth, at the time of opening his Service Register When insuring his life, he gave '9th may 1877', and produced his horoscope in proof of it.

15 The Insurance Committee accepted the latter as the correct date, and ~~and~~ reported the discrepancy for the orders of Govt, issuing the policy provisionally as required by the rules.

16 When called upon to explain the difference, the Official stated that the first date was given without reference to his horoscope & that the date contained in the latter was the correct one.

Enclosure to Sl 7 12

Statement of N. A. Michael Pillay, Excise Sub Inspector. Bowringpet Range - dated 25th July 1912

I have heard the Govt orders no Fl 5395. S.R 41-09-5 dated 29th June 1912 read over to me. The age given in my Service Register is 9th May 1875 and that given in my life Insurance proposal as 9th May 1877. The age according to my baptismal certificate is 18th July 1868. The age given in my baptismal Certificate, namely 18th July 1868 is the Correct date of my birth. The ages given in the Service Register and in the State life Insurance Proposal are wrong and are due to mistakes. When I first entered Service my mother gave out my age as 9th May 1875 and I entered this age in my Service Register thinking that it was the probable date. At the time of submitting my proposal for insurance I found a horoscope in my house giving the date of birth as 9th May 1877. I accordingly entered my age in the Insurance proposal and it was accepted by the Committee as the Correct date. When my baptismal Certificate was received I found out that the ages entered in the Service Register and in the proposal for insurance were incorrect due to pure mistake. The horoscope which I produced was found later on to be not mine but that of my brother Chinnappaji Pillay. These differences are due to pure mistakes. I have not given incorrect dates intentionally. I beg to be kindly excused for the mistakes.

In his first explanation he stated that his "brother" gave his wife's mother's age

Order thereon. no - JC 2385 - 7 dt 1-10-12

Three different dates of birth of the sub Inspector have been given on three different occasions. He gave '9th May 1875' as the date of his birth, when he entered service and changed it into 9th May 1877' when he missed his life. In explanation of the difference he stated that the first date was given without reference to his horoscope, and that the second date, which was taken from the latter, was the correct one. His baptismal certificate which was called for subsequently, however disclosed a third date viz 1.7.1868. Regarding this further discrepancy, the Official states that the correct date is the one contained in the baptismal certificate and that a mistake was committed in taking the date from the horoscope which has disowned to be is not his, but that of his brother.

2. In these circumstances Govt accept 1.7.1868 as the date of birth of the appeal and direct that his insurance policy be revised accordingly and the necessary alterations made in his service register & the schedule of establishment.

3. The Govt however observe that the Sub Inspector's explanation for having given incorrect dates is by no means acceptable and that his negligence in such a matter cannot be passed over. The Excise Comr is therefore requested to take suitable notice of his conduct with a view to prevent a recurrence of such cases.
